

WECAN Case Study on Reasonable Agreements, 21 Feb 2019, see www.wecanadvocate.eu/rapp

Group exercise

You will be provided with the following documents, make sure you have a copy of each:

- One copy of the legal agreement for a patient advocate to act as a speaker at a meeting organized by a pharmaceutical company
- One copy of the emails sent between the company and the advocate
- Guiding Principles on Legal Agreements between advocates and pharmaceutical industry

You have 45 minutes to:

1. Build a team and each of you choose one clause from the speaker agreement on which you will work (clauses 2-8). There needs to be at least one person allocated per clause! (1 minute)
2. Look for “your clause” in the Guiding Principles document and read the rationale, examples and principles behind (5 minutes)
3. Make notes of the changes you would request if you were a patient advocate and the reason why you would want those changes (10 minutes)
4. Make notes of the changes you would accept if you were representing industry (5 minutes)
5. Make notes of the changes you would not accept if you were representing industry, and note down the reason why you wouldn't (5 minutes)
6. Report back on points 3-5 (20 min)
7. Leave your business card with Jan Geissler to be updated about the “Reasonable Legal Agreements” project.
